Concluding Dua

The different segments allowed students to participate according to their interests and abilities while collectively contributing to the spirit and purpose of the occasion.

ENTHUSIASTIC STUDENT PARTICIPATION

- Students came prepared for their respective presentations and performed with confidence, enthusiasm, devotion, and respect.
- The Naat and Qaseeda recitations created a spiritually uplifting atmosphere, while the presentation of Hadith and Islamic messages added an important educational dimension to the program.
- The recitation of the Holy Qur'an and concluding Dua further enhanced the spiritual significance of the gathering.
- Students were not merely spectators; they remained actively connected with the proceedings and demonstrated genuine interest throughout the event.

DISCIPLINE & ENGAGEMENT

- Excellent discipline was maintained throughout the celebration. Students remained seated, attentive, and respectful during the performances of their fellow students.
- The systematic sequence of activities and coordination among teachers helped ensure smooth transitions between different segments of the program.
- The discipline demonstrated by students reflected the combined efforts of the teachers, Section Heads, moderators, and students themselves.
- This contributed significantly to creating a peaceful, organized, and spiritually engaging environment within the auditorium.

CELEBRATION REPORT

MODERATION & EVENT MANAGEMENT

Special appreciation is extended to Ms Ambreen for moderating the program effectively. She demonstrated excellent event-management and student-engagement skills, maintained the flow and sequence of the program, and kept the audience attentive and involved throughout the celebration.

Appreciation is also extended to Ms Mehak Shah, who assisted Ms Ambreen and contributed significantly to the successful coordination and management of the event.

PHOTOGRAPHY & EVENT SUPPORT

Special appreciation is extended to Mr Mushtaque Ahmed and Mr Mansoor Brohi for photography and event support.

Their efforts helped document the memorable moments, student performances, and the overall spirit of the celebration.

APPRECIATION TO SECTION HEADS & TEACHERS

The successful organization of the celebration was made possible through the collective efforts and teamwork of the school staff.

Special appreciation is extended to our Section Heads:

- Mr Abid Khatri – Secondary Section
- Ms Maria Memon – Senior Primary Section
- Ms Sumbul Naz Qureshi – Junior Primary Section

Sincere appreciation is also extended to all teachers who prepared and guided students, supervised their classes, and contributed to the overall success and discipline of the celebration.

EDUCATIONAL & MORAL IMPACT

The celebration served as a meaningful learning and character-building experience for students.

Through Tilawat, Naat, Hadith, Qaseeda, Islamic messages, and Dua, students reflected upon the teachings and exemplary character of the Holy Prophet Muhammad ﷺ.

The event reinforced values of kindness, honesty, patience, compassion, respect, discipline, and service to humanity. It also helped students develop confidence, presentation skills, teamwork, discipline, and respect for others.

CONCLUSION

The Eid Milad-un-Nabi ﷺ Celebration 2026 at People's School Thatta concluded successfully with enthusiastic student participation, excellent discipline, effective moderation, and strong teamwork.

The collective efforts of the Section Heads, teachers, moderators, support staff, and students transformed the occasion into a meaningful and memorable learning experience.

People's School Thatta remains committed to providing opportunities that contribute to the academic, moral, spiritual, social, and character development of its students, enabling them to grow as knowledgeable, responsible, respectful, and compassionate individuals.
