INTER-SCHOOL GIRLS DISTRICT-LEVEL SPORTS TOURNAMENT 2026

PERFORMANCE & ACHIEVEMENT

4TH POSITION

ROPE SKIPPING — DISTRICT LEVEL

The students of People's School Thatta performed confidently across all five games and gave strong competition to experienced teams from other schools.

A notable achievement was securing 4th position in Rope Skipping at the district level. Although the school did not secure top positions in the other games, the students demonstrated great potential, teamwork, determination, and a positive competitive spirit.

Considering that this was the school's first participation in such a tournament, the overall performance was highly encouraging. The experience helped identify students' sporting abilities and areas where further training and practice could improve future results.

PERFORMANCE HIGHLIGHTS

- Secured 4th position in Rope Skipping
- Competed effectively in five different games
- Demonstrated discipline and good sportsmanship
- Gained exposure to district-level competition
- Built confidence, teamwork, and resilience
- Established a positive image of PSP Thatta

Thank You Letter

We the Student of People's School Thatta, would like to say a big Thank you to our School and (SSSWF) for giving us the chance to participate in the District-Level Sports Tournament. It was our first time taking part in a sport tournament, and we really enjoyed it. We had a great time playing games, watching other teams and learning about teamwork, disciplane, Confidence and Sportmanship. We also really like the almosphere at Sports Complex Thatta. Playing and meeting Student from other Schools was a very good experience for us and we learned many new things. We are very thankful to our School and (SSSWF) for suppoting us and making everything easy for us. We really appreciate the proper transportation to the tournament and back to School and for bringing us back safely and on time everyday without any difficulty. We are happy and proud that we got the chance to represent our School and SSSWF for believing in us, Supporting us and giving us this wonderful experience We hope to take part in more tournament in the future and do even better next time.

With gratitude
